The Notes are to be issued without option of prior redemption.

The School District contact information is as follows: Business Manager, District Offices, 11 Liberty Street, Amsterdam, New York 12010-0670, Phone: (518) 843-5206, Telefax: (518) 842-0012, email: rseward@gasd.org.

If the purchaser(s) notifies Bond Counsel by 3:00 o'clock P.M., Prevailing Time on the date of sale, such Notes may be issued in the form of book-entry-only notes, in the denomination corresponding to the aggregate principal amount of the Note. In the event that the Purchaser(s) chooses book-entry-only notes, as a condition to delivery of the Notes, the successful bidder(s) will be required to cause note certificates to be (i) registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee of DTC, and (ii) deposited with DTC to be held in trust until maturity. DTC is an automated depository for securities and clearinghouse for securities transactions, and is responsible for establishing and maintaining a book-entry system for recording the ownership interests of its participants, which include certain banks, trust companies and securities dealers, and the transfers of the interests among its participants. The DTC participants will be responsible for establishing and maintaining records with respect to the Notes. Individual purchases of beneficial ownership interests in the Notes may only be made through book entries (without certificates issued by the School District) made on the books and records of DTC (or a successor depository) and its participants, in denominations of $5,000 or integral multiples thereof. Principal of and interest on the Notes will be payable by the School District or its agent by wire transfer or in clearinghouse funds to DTC or its nominee as registered owner of the Notes. Transfer of principal and interest payments to participants of DTC will be the responsibility of DTC; transfer of principal and interest payments to beneficial owners by participants of DTC will be the responsibility of such participants and other nominees of beneficial owners. The School District will not be responsible or liable for payments by DTC to its participants or by DTC participants to beneficial owners or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing the records maintained by DTC, its participants or persons acting through such participants.

The School District agrees to deliver the Note to DTC one day in advance of the date of delivery of the Note.

Each bid may be for all or any of said Notes and state a single rate of interest therefor in a multiple of one hundredth (1/100th) or one eighth (1/8th) of one per centum per annum. Interest will be calculated on the basis of 30 days to the month and 360-days to the year. Each bid must be for not less than the par value of the Notes. Conditional bids will be rejected.

Said Notes will be awarded to the bidder or bidders offering the lowest net interest cost, that being the rate of interest which will produce the least interest cost over the life of the Notes, after accounting for the premium offered, if any. If two or more bids offering to purchase the same principal amount of Notes at the same lowest net interest rate are received, an award will be made by lot from among such lowest bids. The right is reserved by said School District to reject any and all bids and any bid not complying with this Notice of Sale will be rejected.

Said Notes will be delivered in New York, New York or as may be agreed with the purchaser on or about June 30, 2010. The purchase price of said Notes, in accordance with the purchaser's bid, shall be paid in Federal Funds or other funds available for immediate credit on said delivery date.

CUSIP identification numbers will be printed on the Notes if the purchaser provides Bond Counsel with such numbers by telefax or any other mode of written communication (verbal advice will not be accepted) by 5:00 o'clock P.M. on the day following the date of sale of the Notes, but neither the failure to print such number on any Note nor any error with respect thereto shall constitute cause for a failure or refusal by the purchaser thereof to accept delivery of and pay for the Notes in accordance with the terms of the purchase contract. All expenses in relation to the printing of CUSIP numbers on the Notes shall be paid for by the School District, provided, however, that the CUSIP Service Bureau charge for the assignment of said numbers shall be the responsibility of and shall be paid for by the purchaser.

The purchaser(s) shall be obligated to furnish to the School District, when and if requested, such information requested by the School District as shall be necessary to enable the School District to determine the "issue price" of the Notes as defined in Section 1273 or 1274 of the Code.

As a condition to each purchaser(s)'s obligation to accept delivery of and pay for the Notes, such purchaser(s) will be furnished, without cost, the following, dated as of the date of the delivery of and payment for said Notes: (i) a Closing Certificate, constituting a receipt for the Note proceeds and a signature certificate, which will include a statement that no litigation is pending, or to the knowledge of the signers, threatened affecting the Notes, and (ii) the unqualified legal opinion of the law firm of Hiscock & Barclay, LLP, Albany, New York, Bond Counsel, to the effect that the Notes are valid and legally binding obligations of the Enlarged City School District of the City of Amsterdam, Montgomery County, New York, that all the taxable real property therein will be subject to the levy of ad valorem taxes to pay the Notes and the interest thereon without limitation as to rate or amount, that among other things, the Code, includes certain requirements that must be met subsequent to the issuance of the Notes in order that interest thereon be and remain excluded from gross income to the recipients thereof, and that under existing law, interest on the Notes is excluded from gross income for Federal income tax purposes, and, by virtue of the Local Finance Law, interest on the Notes is exempt from personal income taxes of the State of New York and its political subdivisions. In the opinion of Bond Counsel, interest on the Notes is not an item of tax preference for purposes of Federal alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals and corporations. No opinion is expressed regarding other Federal tax consequences arising with respect to the Notes. Such opinion also will state that: (a) the rights of the owners of the Notes and the enforceability of the Notes may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by equitable principles, whether considered at law or in equity; and (b) such opinion is given as of its dated date and that Bond Counsel assumes no obligation to update or supplement their opinion to reflect any facts or circumstances that may thereafter come to their attention or any changes in law that may occur thereafter.

The Tax Increase Prevention and Reconciliation Act of 2005, enacted on May 17, 2006, contains a provision under which interest paid on tax-exempt obligations will be subject to information reporting in a manner similar to interest paid on taxable obligations. Although the new reporting requirement does not, in and of itself, affect the excludability of such interest from gross income for federal income tax purposes, the reporting requirement causes the payment of interest on the Notes to be subject to backup withholding if such interest is paid to registered owners who either (a) fail to provide certain identifying information (such as the registered owner's taxpayer identification number) in the required manner or (b) have been identified by the IRS as having failed to report all interest and dividends required to be shown on their income tax returns. Amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a beneficial owner would be allowed as a refund or a credit against such beneficial owner's federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

Bond Counsel has advised that (1) with respect to insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by Section 831 of the Code, the Code provides that such insurance company's deduction for loss is reduced by 15% of the sum of certain items, including interest on the Notes, (2) interest on the Notes earned by certain foreign corporations doing business in the United States could be subject to a branch profits tax imposed by Section 884 of the Code; (3) passive investment income, including interest on the Notes, may be subject to Federal income taxation under Section 1375 of the Code for Subchapter C earnings and profits at the close of the year if greater than 25% of the gross receipts of such Subchapter S corporation is passive investment income; (4) the Code requires recipients of certain Social Security and certain Railroad Retirement benefits to take into account, in determining the taxability of such benefits, receipts or accruals of interest on the Notes; and (5) under Section 32(i) of the Code, receipt of investment income, including interest on the Notes, may disqualify the recipient thereof from obtaining the earned income credit.

A Noteholder's Federal, State and local tax liability may otherwise be affected by the ownership or disposition of the Notes. The nature and extent of these other consequences will depend upon Noteholder's other items of income or deduction. Bond Counsel has expressed no opinion regarding any other such tax consequences. Each purchaser of the Notes should consult its tax advisor regarding the impact of the foregoing and other provisions of the Code on its individual tax position.
